

Chalk, Jpeg, & You

Tap into your creative powers, grab some sidewalk chalk, and get going.

From an all-time favorite or recent book you read, think of a character, scene, creature, or reoccurring symbol. Draw it, take a picture, and tag Anderson Co. Library when you share.

Ex: A maze could represent Maze Runner or Percy Jackson and the Labyrinth.

You can even add yourself to the image. For example, recreate the cover of Red Queen by Victoria Aveyard, and position yourself so that it looks like you are wearing the crown.

Go further...grab some props to enhance your drawing or create an optical illusion, an impossible picture. For example, snap a picture to where it looks like you are swirling into the ominous teacup used in Reverie by Ryan La Sala.
